By-law etc.

25. The Sydney College of Advanced Education By-law 1982 and the Sydney College of Advanced Education Regulation 1981 are repealed.

PART 10—TRANSFER OF STAFFDefinitions

26. In this Part—

Higher Education (Amalgamation) 1989

“officer”, in relation to a former institution, means a person who, immediately before the relevant commencement, held any salaried office or employment in the staff establishment of that institution (otherwise than as a temporary staff member or a staff member employed on a fixed term contract) and includes, in the case of the Conservatorium of Music, any member of staff of the Public Service who was, immediately before that commencement, engaged solely in connection with the Conservatorium of Music;

“superannuation scheme” means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under an Act;

“temporary staff member”, in relation to a former institution, means a person who, immediately before the relevant commencement, was employed in the staff establishment of that institution on terms and conditions that allowed for his or her services to be dispensed with at any time.

Transfer of staff generally

27. (1) Each officer of a former institution shall, on the relevant commencement, become an officer of the corresponding institution.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by this Part or the regulations, the terms and conditions on which an officer of a former institution becomes an officer of a corresponding institution shall be in accordance with such arrangements, if any, as are agreed upon (before the relevant commencement) between the governing body of the former institution and the governing body of the corresponding institution.

Remuneration and tenure

28. (1) An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Part, becomes an officer of the corresponding institution shall become such an officer on terms and conditions as to remuneration, and duration of appointment, no less favourable than those on which he or she was employed at the former institution immediately before the relevant commencement.

(2) Such part of the remuneration referred to in subsection (1) as is salary or wages is subject to any adjustment necessary to give effect to any fluctuation in the applicable basic wage in force under Part 5 of the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 until the salary is, or the wages are, lawfully varied.

Superannuation

29. (1) An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Part, becomes an officer of the corresponding institution—

Higher Education (Amalgamation) 1989

- (a) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which the person was a contributor immediately before becoming an officer of the corresponding institution; and
- (b) is entitled to receive any payment, pension or gratuity accrued or accruing to the person under any such scheme, as if he or she had continued to be such a contributor during his or her service as an officer of the corresponding institution.

(2) Service by an officer of a former institution as an officer of the corresponding institution shall be taken to be service as an officer of the former institution for the purposes of any law under which the officer continues to contribute to any such scheme or by which an entitlement under any such scheme is conferred.

(3) An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Part, becomes an officer of the corresponding institution shall be regarded as an officer or employee, and the corresponding institution shall be regarded as the employer, for the purposes of the superannuation scheme to which he or she is entitled to contribute under this section.

(4) If a person would, but for this subsection, be entitled under subsection (1) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under any such scheme—

- (a) the person is not so entitled on the person's becoming a contributor to any other superannuation scheme; and
- (b) the provisions of subsection (3) cease to apply to or in respect of the person and the corresponding institution where the person becomes a contributor to any such other superannuation scheme.

(5) Subsection (4) does not prevent the payment to an officer of a former institution, on the officer's ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme, of such amount as would have been payable to the officer if the officer had ceased, by reason of resignation, to be such a contributor.

Annual leave, long service leave and sick leave

30. (1) An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Part, becomes an officer of the corresponding institution retains any rights to—

- (a) annual leave;
- (b) leave in the nature of long service leave; and
- (c) sick leave,

accrued or accruing to the person as an officer of the former institution.

(2) A person's entitlement to any such leave shall be calculated—

- (a) for such part of any period during which that leave accrued or was accruing as occurred before the relevant commencement—at the rate for the time being applicable to the officer, as an officer of the former institution, before that commencement; and

Higher Education (Amalgamation) 1989

- (b) for such part of that period as occurred after the relevant commencement—at the rate for the time being applicable to the officer, as an officer of the corresponding institution, after that commencement.

No entitlement to dual benefits

31. An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Part, becomes an officer of the corresponding institution is not entitled to claim, both under this Act and any other Act, dual benefits of the same kind in respect of the same period of service.

Public servants may re-apply for positions in the Public Service

32. (1) An officer of a former institution who, immediately before the relevant commencement, was a public servant may, within the period of 3 years immediately following that commencement, apply for a position in the Public Service as if the officer were still a public servant.

(2) An officer of a former institution who applies for such a position, or who is appointed to or employed in such a position, shall, for the purposes of—

- (a) the Public Sector Management Act 1988;
- (b) the Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal Act 1980; and
- (c) the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940, be taken to be a public servant in relation to the application, appointment or employment.

(3) There is no right of appeal under the Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal Act 1980—

- (a) for a person against the filling of a position in the Public Service by an officer of a former institution; or
- (b) for an officer of a former institution against the filling of a position in the Public Service by another person.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a public servant is a reference to an officer employed within the Public Service.

Temporary staff

33. (1) Each temporary staff member of a former institution shall, on the relevant commencement, become a temporary staff member of the corresponding institution.

Higher Education (Amalgamation) 1989

(2) A temporary staff member of a former institution who, pursuant to this section, becomes a temporary staff member of the corresponding institution shall become such a staff member on the same terms and conditions (including conditions as to remuneration) as those on which he or she was employed at the former institution immediately before the relevant commencement.

(3) Such part of the remuneration referred to in subsection (2) as is salary or wages is subject to any adjustment necessary to give effect to any fluctuation in the applicable basic wage in force under Part 5 of the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 until the salary is, or the wages are, lawfully varied.

Fixed term contracts

34. A fixed term contract in force, immediately before the relevant commencement, between a person and a former institution (being a contract under which the person performed services for that institution)—

- (a) shall be taken, for the remainder of its term, to be a contract in the same terms, between the person and the corresponding institution, under which the corresponding institution assumes the rights and obligations of the former institution; and
- (b) may be arbitrated, terminated or renewed in any manner provided by the contract.

Operation of Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 unaffected

35. Nothing in this Part affects the operation of the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940.

PART 11—GENERAL

Transfer of assets etc.

36. (1) Subject to this Act, on and from the relevant commencement, any assets, rights, liabilities or obligations of a former institution become assets, rights, liabilities or obligations of the corresponding institution.

(2) In this section, a reference to a former institution includes, in relation to the Conservatorium of Music, a reference to—

- (a) the Board of Governors of the Conservatorium of Music; and
- (b) in relation to the assets, rights, liabilities or obligations of the Crown that relate exclusively to the Conservatorium of Music—the Crown.

Determination of certain questions

37. (1) Any question arising in connection with the operation of this Act—

- (a) as to which institution any particular item of property belongs or relates to;
- (b) as to which land is under the control and management of any particular institution;
- (c) as to which institution any assets, rights, liabilities or obligations belong or relate to; or
- (d) as to which institution the employment of any staff pertains to,

shall be determined by the Minister.

(2) A certificate of the Minister as to a determination under this section is, for any purpose, evidence of the matters contained in the certificate.

Students

38. (1) Each person who was, immediately before the relevant commencement, a student of a former institution enrolled in a course of study shall on that commencement (unless the student was a graduand in that course) become a student of the corresponding institution and be enrolled in a course of study that is substantially the same as the course of study in which the student was enrolled at the former institution.

(2) The corresponding institution shall (for such period as is necessary for the purposes of this section and, in any case, until the end of the academic year next following the relevant commencement) provide such courses of study as are necessary for the purposes of this section.

(3) If a student is enrolled in a course of study pursuant to this section, the corresponding institution shall, as far as it may practicably do so, give the student credit in that course for any subject or work completed by the student in the course of study from which the student was transferred.

(4) Students so enrolled are entitled, on satisfactory completion of their courses, to appropriate awards conferred by the corresponding institution but may, if they so desire, instead obtain awards conferred in the name of the former institution at which they were previously enrolled.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the seal of a former institution may be affixed to any document pursuant to a resolution of the governing body of the corresponding institution.

(6) The seal of a former institution shall, on and from the relevant commencement, be kept in the custody of such person or body as the Minister may determine.

Higher Education (Amalgamation) 1989

Saving of delegations

39. Any delegation made by the governing body of a former institution and in force immediately before the relevant commencement continues to have effect as if it were a delegation made by the governing body of the corresponding institution, but may be revoked at any time by that governing body.

Instruments exempt from stamp duty etc.

40. Any instrument that is executed for the purposes of disposing of, or otherwise dealing with, property in accordance with this Act is exempt—

- (a) from payment of stamp duty under the Stamp Duties Act 1920; and
- (b) from payment of any other fee or charge that would otherwise be payable under any other Act in respect of the registration of any such instrument.

Control and management of property

41. The transfer, by this Act, of the control and management of any property from a former institution to the corresponding institution does not affect any power of the person or body by whom the control and management of that property has been conferred, or of any lawful successor of that person or body—

- (a) to remove the control and management of that property from the corresponding institution; or
- (b) to vary the conditions subject to which the control and management of that property may be exercised by the corresponding institution, that could have been exercised by that person or body, or by that lawful successor, in respect of the former institution had this Act not been enacted.

Existing investments

42. Nothing in this Act affects the validity of any investment made by or on behalf of a former institution before the relevant commencement.

Construction of certain references

43. In any other Act or in any statutory instrument (including any industrial award or industrial agreement) or other document, a reference to a former institution shall, on and from the relevant commencement, be read as a reference to the corresponding institution.

*Higher Education (Amalgamation) 1989Regulations

44. (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act and the following Acts:

University and University Colleges (Amendment) Act 1989;
