Royal Commission (Police Service) Regulation 1997

under the

Royal Commission (Police Service) Act 1994

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Royal Commission (Police Service) Act 1994.

Bob Carr; MP

Premier

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to enable the Commissioner and officers (or former Commissioner or officers) of the Royal Commission to produce documents and divulge information obtained in the exercise of their functions under the Royal Commission (Police Service) Act 1994 to the Special Commission of Inquiry established by the Governor on 26 September 1997 under the Special Commissions of Inquiry Act 1983.

The production of such documents or divulging of such information is prohibited by section 30 of the Royal Commission (Police Service) Act 1994 unless the document is produced or information divulged in the circumstances specified in section 30 (4) (a)–(c) or to an authority or person prescribed for the purposes of section 30 (4) (d) of the Act.

The Regulation is made under the Royal Commission (Police Service) Act 1994, including section 30 (4) (d) and section 42 (the general regulation-making power).

This Regulation comprises or relates to matters that are not likely to impose an appreciable burden, cost or disadvantage on any sector of the public.
