Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (New South Wales) Temporary Exemptions Regulation 1998

under the

Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (New South Wales) Act
1996

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (New South Wales) Act 1996.

BOB CARR, M.P.,

Premier

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to declare certain laws of New South Wales relating to electrical articles to be exempt from the operation of the 1996 Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition Arrangement. The exemption provided by this Regulation is temporary (ie it will operate for no longer than 12 months) and only has effect if the laws being exempted are substantially for the protection of the health and safety of persons in New South Wales.

This Regulation is made under section 5 of the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (New South Wales) Act 1996.

This Regulation relates to matters arising under legislation that is substantially uniform or complementary with legislation of the Commonwealth and other States.
