Pre-Trial Diversion of Offenders Regulation 2000

under the

Pre-Trial Diversion of Offenders Act 1985

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Pre-Trial Diversion of Offenders Act 1985.

JEFFREY SHAW, Q.C., M.L.C.,

Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to repeal and remake, without changes in substance, the provisions of the Pre-Trial Diversion of Offenders Regulation 1995. The new Regulation deals with the following matters:

- (a) the maximum periods for which proceedings to which the Pre-Trial Diversion of Offenders Act 1985 applies may be adjourned for the purposes of that Act,
- (b) the guidelines to be observed by a prosecutor in deciding whether a person should be referred for assessment as to the person's suitability for participation in the Pre-Trial Diversion of Offenders Program conducted under that Act,
- (c) matters relating to the carrying out of such an assessment,
- (d) other formal matters.

5 Prosecutor's guidelines: section 10

For the purposes of section 10 of the Act, the following guidelines are prescribed for consideration by the prosecutor in determining whether a person is to be referred for assessment:

Guidelines

- 1 A prosecutor should not refer a person for assessment:
 - (a) if the child sexual assault offence with which the person is charged is alleged to have been accompanied by acts of violence towards the alleged victim or others, or
 - (b) if the person is under 18 years of age, or
 - (c) if the person has a prior conviction for a sexual offence, whether in New South Wales or elsewhere, or
 - (d) if the alleged victim is 18 years of age or more when the person first appears before a Justice in relation to the offence, or
 - (e) if the person has previously been requested under section 23 of the Act to give an undertaking in relation to any offence.
- 2 A prosecutor may take into account any other matter that the prosecutor considers relevant to the question of whether or not the person should be referred for assessment.

6 Assessment procedure: section 14

- (1) Within one week after the prosecutor's decision to refer a person for an assessment of suitability for participation in the Program, the prosecutor must notify the Director in writing of that decision.
- (2) Within one week after the assessment is carried out, the Director must notify the prosecutor of the results of the assessment and (if appropriate) the reasons why the person concerned is not suitable for participation in the Program.
- (3) The assessment must be carried out by means of structured clinical interviews of:
 - (a) the person referred for assessment, and
 - (b) such other persons acquainted with the person referred for assessment as the Director may determine.
