

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINTO

GEORGII IV. REGIS.

No. I.

An Act to make Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange payable in Spanish Dollars available as if such Notes and Bills had been drawn payable in Sterling Money of the Realm. [28th September, 1824.]

CURRENCY.

WHEREAS the ordinary business of Buying and Selling in the Treamble. said Colony and the Dependencies thereof is and has long been transacted in a Foreign Silver Coin commonly called Spanish Dollars and by Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes payable in such Dollars. And whereas to improve the security of the said Bills and Notes will promote trade and just dealing. Now therefore it is hereby enacted That all Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes payable in such Dollars as aforesaid shall be holden in the Courts of Law of the said Colony and of the Dependencies thereof to be valid negotiable and transferable instruments and the holders of the same and all other persons interested therein shall have and be allowed in the said Courts all such remedies in respect of their claims upon such Bills and Notes as aforesaid as if the said Bills and Notes had been drawn payable in money of the Realm.

All Bills and Notes payable in Spanish Dollars to be as valid as if drawn payable in money of the Realm.

—
No. II.