

No. XXIX.

An Act for the auditing and regulating the Accounts of the Ordinary Revenue of New South Wales. [Reserved—7th November, 1845.]

REVENUE AUDIT.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further provision for the Preamble. auditing and regulating the accounts of the expenditure of the Ordinary Revenue of New South Wales including the costs charges and expenses incident to the collection management and receipt thereof Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof That a full account of the receipts and disbursements of the Colonial Treasurer on account of the Ordinary Revenue for the year then last past shall be laid before the Legislative Council within fourteen days from the commencement of the Session and that the said Council shall refer such account to a Select Committee.

Account to be laid before Council and referred to Select Committee.

2. And be it enacted That it shall be the duty of such Select Committee to audit examine and report upon the said account and they are hereby empowered to call for vouchers and to examine witnesses touching the said account and all persons are hereby required to give such attendance and produce such vouchers and documents as the said Committee shall order and direct.

Powers and duties of Select Committee.

3. And be it declared and enacted That the said costs charges and expenses shall be regulated by such Acts as shall from time to time be passed by the said Governor and Council for applying the said Revenue to the service of the said Colony.

Costs to be regulated by Appropriation
Acts.