

No. XXIII.

An Act to prevent Cattle being driven through populous towns and places except within certain hours. [23rd November, 1852.]

CATTLE DRIVING.

WHEREAS it is necessary for the safety of the public to prevent the driving of Cattle intended for sale slaughter or shipment into or through populous towns and places except within certain hours Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows :—

1. No Cattle intended for sale slaughter or shipment shall be driven into or through any part of any town or place to which the Governor shall upon the application of the inhabitants thereof or of the Bench of Magistrates thereat have decided and notified in the New South Wales Government Gazette that this Act shall apply except between the hours of six o'clock in the afternoon and eight o'clock in the morning and every person who shall drive or cause to be driven any such Cattle as aforesaid into or through any part of such towns or places at any other hour shall on conviction before one or more Justices of the Peace forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty shillings for each and every head of Cattle so driven.

Cattle not to be driven through
towns to be notified
except within certain hours.

2. In the construction of this Act the word “Cattle” shall extend to and include bulls cows oxen heifers and steers but shall not be held to apply to milch cows or cattle in teams or to working cattle.

What Cattle to be within this Act.