

No. XIX.

An Act for fixing the Landing Places for Baggage. BAGGAGE-LANDING PLACES. [19th September, 1853.]

WHEREAS it is deemed proper for the protection of the Revenue Preamble. that only certain Wharves should be used for the landing of Baggage at the Port of Sydney from Vessels in the Stream or Offing Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

1. No Passenger's Baggage shall be landed from Vessels arriving Where Baggage may in the Harbour of Port Jackson from parts beyond the seas or any of be landed.
the neighbouring Colonies and anchored in the Stream or Offing except at the Circular Quay in Sydney Cove or at the Wharf in Darling Harbour at the foot of Erskine-street or such other Wharves as may be hereafter appointed by the Collector of Customs and if any such Baggage shall be landed at any other Wharf Stairs or Landing Place the same shall be forfeited together with the boat in which such Baggage has been conveyed from the ship to the shore Provided Except under a nevertheless that this Act shall not prevent the landing of Baggage Baggage sufferance.
under the usual regulations for the landing of Baggage from vessels lying alongside the several Sufferance Wharves where an Officer of Customs is stationed.

---