

No. XX.

QUEENSLAND
BOUNDARY CUSTOMS.

An Act to authorize a Treaty respecting Customs Duties on Goods crossing the Queensland Boundary. [Reserved—20th January, 1862.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that some arrangement should be made respecting the collection of Customs Duties on Goods crossing the Boundary between this Colony and Queensland Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

Governor and Executive Council
may enter into a Treaty.

1. The Governor with the advice of the Executive Council may enter into a binding Treaty with the Government of the Colony of Queensland for establishing a mutual system of collecting and accounting for all Customs Duties payable to the respective Governments upon Goods crossing the boundary line between the said two Colonies.

Short title.

2. This Act shall be styled and may be cited as the "New South Wales and Queensland Customs Act of 1862."
