

No. XXII.

CUSTOMS GENERAL
REGULATION
ACT AMENDMENT.

An Act to amend “An Act to provide for the “general Regulation of the Customs in New “South Wales” as to the time allowed for entering Goods. [1st February, 1868.]

BE it enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

9 Vict. No. 15 sec. 17
repealed.

1. The seventeenth section of the Act ninth Victoria number fifteen is hereby repealed.

If goods be not entered in seven days
officers may land
and secure them.

2. If the importer owner or consignee of any goods shall not within seven clear working days after the date of entry of the ship importing the same (if a sailing vessel) or one clear day (if a steamer) make entry of such goods the master owner or agent of such ship may immediately on the expiration of such working day or days enter and land such goods and the Officers of Customs shall convey the same to the Queen’s Warehouse or other approved place of security and if the duties payable on any such goods shall not be paid within three months from the date of landing thereof together with all charges of freight removal and warehouse rent such goods may be sold and the produce thereof applied first to the payment of freight and charges next of duties and the overplus if any shall be paid to the owner of the goods on his application But if any goods so landed shall be of a perishable or explosive nature they may be sold forthwith and the produce applied in like manner.

---