

No. IV.

An Act to authorize the issue of Treasury Bills to cover the Deficiency of 1870 and previous Years. [22nd June, 1871.]

TREASURY BILLS
DEFICIENCY.

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize the issue as occasion may require of Treasury Bills to the amount of Three hundred and thirty-four thousand six hundred pounds to cover the Deficiency Debt of the Colony for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy and previous years Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. The term Governor in Council whenever used herein shall mean the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council And when any Government officer is mentioned herein the person for the time being acting for such officer and duly authorized so to act shall be also implied.

2. The Governor in Council may at any time cause any number of Treasury Bills to be made out by the Colonial Treasurer for any amounts of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of Three hundred and thirty-four thousand six hundred pounds in manner and subject to the provisions hereinafter specified and contained.

3. All such Treasury Bills shall be made out at the Treasury in such method and form and with such cheques indents and counterfoils as the Colonial Treasurer shall deem most safe and convenient And may contain one common sum or different sums in the principal moneys And shall be signed by the Colonial Treasurer the Auditor General and by such other person or persons as the Governor in Council shall direct and authorize And the names of other persons so authorized to sign such Bills shall be registered in the Treasury and published in the New South Wales Government Gazette before any Treasury Bills so signed shall be issued.

4. All such Treasury Bills shall be numbered consecutively beginning with number one and progressing arithmetically by units.

5. All principal sums to be contained in any such Treasury Bills shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the Consolidated Revenue of the Colony and such Bills shall not be made payable on any day later than the thirtieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

6. All such Treasury Bills shall bear date on such days subsequent to the commencement of this Act as the Governor in Council shall direct And shall bear interest payable half-yearly at a rate not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum in respect of the whole moneys contained therein And such interest shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the Consolidated Revenue of the Colony and the growing produce thereof.

7. In case any such Treasury Bill shall be defaced by accident the Colonial Treasurer may cancel the same and cause a new Bill to be made in the Treasury in lieu thereof and such cancelled Bill shall be filed in the Treasury And such new Bill shall have the like currency and be in all respects subject to the same rules methods and continuance and bear the same number date and principal sum and rate of interest as such cancelled Bill.
