10. Where the land described in any such notification consists wholly or partly of land alienated by or not the property of the Crown or is not Crown land as defined by this Act the owners thereof or the persons who but for the provisions hereinbefore contained would have been such owners shall be entitled to receive such sum of money by way of compensation for the land of which they have been deprived under this Act as shall be agreed upon or otherwise ascertained under the provisions hereinafter contained Provided however that in the case of land conditionally or otherwise purchased from the Crown within a period of five years from the date of the notification of the resumption thereof under this Act no such compensation shall exceed per acre or portion thereof the amount or proportion prescribed by the Act thirty-seventh Victoria number eighteen but in every such case the provisions of the said Act shall subject to the provisions of this Act apply to any land so resumed under this Act.

Conversion of estate of proprietor of resumed land into a claim.

11. The estate and interest of every person entitled to lands resumed under this Act or any portion thereof and whether to the legal or the equitable estate therein shall by virtue of this Act be deemed to have been as fully and effectually conveyed to the Minister as if the same had been conveyed by the persons legally or equitably entitled thereto by means of the most perfect assurances in the law And every such estate and interest shall upon the publication of such notification as aforesaid be taken to have been converted into a claim for compensation in pursuance of the provisions hereinafter contained And every person shall upon asserting his claim as hereinafter provided and making out his title in respect of any portion of the said resumed lands be entitled to compensation on account of such resumption in manner hereinafter provided.

Notice of claim for compensation.

12. Every person claiming compensation in respect of any land so resumed or work or other matter done under the authority of this Act shall within ninety days from the publication of such notification or at any time afterwards within such time as a Judge of the Supreme Court shall upon the application and at the cost of the claimant appoint in that behalf serve a notice in writing upon the Minister and a like notice upon the Crown Solicitor which notice shall set forth the nature of the estate or interest of the claimant in such land together with an abstract of his title and if he claims in respect of damage the nature of the damage which he has sustained or will sustain by reason of such resumption or work or matter as aforesaid and such notice may be in the form in the First Schedule hereto but with any modifications required by the nature of the claim.

Claim and report thereon.

13. Within sixty days after the receipt of every such notice of claim by the Crown Solicitor he shall forward the same together with his report thereon to the Minister who shall thereupon (unless no prima facie case for compensation shall have been disclosed) cause a valuation of the land or of the estate or interest of the claimant therein to be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act and shall inform the claimant as soon as practicable of the amount of such valuation by notice in the form of the Second Schedule hereto.

Lands for Public Purposes Acquisition.

14. If within ninety days after the service of notice of claim the claimant and the Minister shall not agree as to the amount of compensation the claimant shall be at liberty to institute proceedings in the Supreme Court in the form of an action for compensation against the Minister as nominal defendant And any such action may be tried before a Judge of the said Court or in any Circuit Court and a special jury of four persons Provided always that upon application either of the Minister or of the claimant a special jury of twelve may be summoned for the trial of such action Provided also that with the consent in writing of the Minister and the claimant any such action may be so tried at any time [to be mentioned in such consent] before the expiration of ninety days from service of the notice of claim for compensation but not within fourteen days from service of the notice of valuation on such claimant.

Compensation by action in Supreme Court.

15. The issue to be tried in any such action shall be whether the claimant is entitled to a larger sum by way of compensation than the amount of the valuation so made by the Minister and notified to the claimant as aforesaid and if so to what sum And if upon the trial of the said action the verdict shall be for a greater sum than the amount of the said valuation the costs of the action shall be borne by the Minister but if the verdict shall be for a sum equal to or less than such valuation then the costs shall be borne by the claimant And the power to direct a reference to arbitration shall not be exercised by the Judge before whom any such action shall be tried.

Issue in action of compensation verdict
and costs.

16. All moneys payable under this Act by way of compensation to any claimant whether under the verdict of a jury or otherwise shall be paid together with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the time of the publication in the Gazette as aforesaid and costs (if any) out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund by warrant of the Governor addressed to the Colonial Treasurer within one month after the determination of such compensation to the person lawfully entitled thereto or to his agent duly authorized in that behalf in writing but the claimant shall be bound to make out his title to the estate or interest claimed by him in all cases where the claim is in respect of the deprivation of some estate or interest in land.

As to payment of compensation.

17. A District Court shall notwithstanding anything contained in the "District Courts Act of 1858" have jurisdiction to try any such action of compensation at the District Court holden within the district wherein any land resumed under this Act (or the greater portion of such land) is situated in any case where the whole amount of the claim in respect to such land served in pursuance of the twelfth section of this Act does not exceed two hundred pounds or if exceeding that amount in any case where the Minister and the claimant by a memorandum signed by them or by such claimant's attorney and the Crown Solicitor agree thereto For the purposes of this section the provisions of the said District Courts Act and of any Act amending the same together with all rules made or to be made thereunder shall be deemed to apply to all proceedings taken in any District Court hereunder.

Where claim may be prosecuted in a District Court.

18. In estimating or assessing the compensation to be paid under this Act regard shall be had by the valuers and by the jury (on any issue) not only to the value of the land taken by the Minister and to the provisions of the tenth section of this Act where the same shall be applicable but also to the damage (if any) to be sustained by the claimant by reason of the severing of the lands taken from other lands or other injuries suffered by him by reason of the exercise of the powers expressed or incorporated in this Act and they shall assess the same according to what they shall find to have been the value of such lands estate or interest at the time of the resumption thereof or the extent of the damage or injury sustained Provided that in the case
