

No. XV.

DEDICATION
BY USER LIMITATION.

An Act to limit the application of the Doctrine of Dedication by User in certain cases.
[19th December, 1881.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

No dedication of right-of-way by user.

1. After the passing of this Act no dedication or grant of a right-of-way shall be presumed or allowed to be asserted or established as against the Crown or as against persons holding lands in trust for any public purpose and this whether in proceedings instituted by or on behalf of the Crown or not by reason only of user whether such user commenced before or after the passing of the "Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861" Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of any party in any action commenced before the passing of this Act.
