

No. XIV.

COMPANIES.
EXTRA-COLONIAL REGISTERS.

An Act to authorize Companies registered under the "Companies Act" to keep Extra-Colonial Registers. [24th September, 1884.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS many Companies registered under the "Companies Act" carry on business in the United Kingdom and elsewhere out of New South Wales and dealings in their shares there are frequent but delay and expense are occasioned by reason of the absence of legal provision for keeping local registers of their members. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Companies Extra-Colonial Registers Act of 1884."

Power to keep Extra-
Colonial registers.

2. Any Company registered in New South Wales whose objects comprise the transaction of business in the United Kingdom or elsewhere may if authorized so to do by its regulations as originally framed or as altered by special resolution cause to be kept in the United Kingdom and in any place elsewhere within the Queen's Dominions in which it transacts business a branch register of the members there resident.

Notice to Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

3. The Company shall give to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies notice of the situation of every office where any such branch register (in this Act called an Extra-Colonial Register) is kept and of any change therein and of the discontinuance of any such office in the event of the same being discontinued.

Registers how kept or closed &c.

4. An Extra-Colonial register shall as regards the particulars entered therein be deemed to be part of the Company's register of members and shall be evidence of all particulars entered therein. Every such register shall be kept in the manner provided by the "Companies Act" except that the advertisement mentioned in section thirty-one of the Act shall be inserted in some newspaper circulating in the district wherein the register to be closed is kept.

Ss. 30 and 33 of
"Companies Act" extended.

5. Sections thirty and thirty-three of the said Act shall equally apply to entries in Extra-Colonial registers as to entries in the register of the Company kept in New South Wales and the Supreme Court and its Judges shall have the same jurisdiction in respect of entries in such Extra-Colonial registers as by those sections is provided with respect to entries in the New South Wales Register.

Duplicates of registers &c.

6. The Company shall cause to be transmitted to its registered office a copy of every entry in its Extra-Colonial registers as soon as may be after such entry is made and shall keep at such office entered up from time to time duplicates of such registers. The provisions of section thirty of the "Companies Act" shall apply to every such duplicate and such duplicate shall for all the purposes of the Act be deemed to be part of the register of members of the Company.

Extra-Colonial
shares to be distinct.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to duplicate registers the shares registered in an Extra-Colonial register shall be distinguished from the shares registered in the principal register and no transaction with respect to a share registered in an Extra-Colonial register shall during the continuance of the registration of such share therein be registered in any other register.

Consolidated Revenue Fund (No. 10).

8. The Company may discontinue any Extra-Colonial register Discontinuance of and thereupon all entries in that register shall be transferred to some <sup>any</sup> register. other register kept by the Company in the same place or district or to the register of members kept at the registered office of the Company.

9. Subject to the provisions of this Act any registered Company Companies may make may by special resolution make such provisions as it shall think fit regulations respecting the keeping of Extra-Colonial registers.
