

No. XVII.

JUDGES ENABLING. An Act to enable certain Judges of the Supreme Court to sit upon the hearing of certain new Trial Motions. [2nd December, 1887.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

J.J. Innes and Faucett enabled to sit on two new trial
motions
notwithstanding.
48 Vic. No. 13.

1. Notwithstanding anything in the Act forty-eighth Victoria number thirteen, or in any other Act contained, Mr. Justice Innes may sit upon the hearing of the new trial motion, McMillan and wife v. Finlay and others, and Mr. Justice Faucett may sit upon the hearing of the new trial motion, Mackay v. Try, both such motions being specified in the Schedule to the "Supreme Court Appeals Act of 1887." But nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of the said last cited Act or of any Act amending the same.
