

No. V.

An Act to amend in certain respects the "Government Railways Act of 1888." [19th July, 1888.]

GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS ACT AMENDMENT.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the time limited for the commencement of the "Government Railways Act of 1888" should be extended; and that the salary granted by the said Act to the Chief Commissioner should be increased. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Government Railways Act Short title.
Amendment Act."

Criminal Law Amendment.

Extension of time
limited for commencement of "Government Railways Act of 1888"; and increase of Chief Commissioner's salary.

2. Notwithstanding anything in the second section of the "Government Railways Act of 1888," the date of the commencement of the said Act for the purposes of the said section shall be such day not later than six calendar months after the passing of this Act as the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council shall, by a proclamation to be published in the Gazette, appoint and declare; and notwithstanding anything in the tenth section of the said Act the annual salary of the Chief Commissioner shall be Three Thousand Pounds, and the said tenth section shall be read as if the words "Three Thousand" had been therein contained instead of the words "Two Thousand five hundred."
