

No. XX.

An Act to amend the "Nuisances Prevention Act," 39 Victoria No. 14, in certain respects. [16th March, 1892.]

NUISANCES
PREVENTION ACT AMENDMENT.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen respecting the provisions of the Preamble. "Nuisances Prevention Act," thirty-ninth Victoria number fourteen, for cleansing dry-earth closets: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The provisions of sections nine and eleven of the "Nuisances Prevention Act," thirty-ninth Victoria number fourteen, shall extend to dry-earth closets and other closet pans.

2. The Council in each Municipality may cause, unless otherwise provided for to the satisfaction of the Council, its own servants or contractors, under the direction of the Inspector of Nuisances or other officers appointed in that behalf, to empty all dry-earth closets and and other closet pans within the same Municipality once, at least, every week, and to use implements and appliances, and take such other measures in the performance of the work as shall be deemed best adapted for the suppression of offensive smells, or the suppression of other nuisances: Provided that any Council may suspend the provisions of the ninth section of the "Nuisances Prevention Act" so far as applicable to earth closets in the case of any premises as to which the Council is satisfied that the owner or occupier has made suitable provision for the disposal of nightsoil.

Public or Charitable Institutions may be withdrawn from the operation of this Act.

3. In all cases in which the Governor is satisfied that adequate provision for the disposal of nightsoil, without danger to the public health, is made in or on behalf of any institution or establishment supported wholly or partly by grants from the Consolidated Revenue, and being the property of Her Majesty, or being vested in trustees or other persons on behalf of Her Majesty, or for public or charitable purposes, he may, by proclamation in the Government Gazette, withdraw such institution from the operation of this Act, and may at any time rescind such proclamation if necessary.

Short title.

4. This Act may be styled and cited as the "Nuisances Prevention Act Amendment Act of 1892."
