

No. XXII.

An Act to amend the “Sydney Corporation Act of 1879,” and to authorise and empower the Municipal Council of Sydney to pave, amend, and repair all footways, including gateways, crossings, or other entrances from the street to any premises in the City of Sydney, and to defray the cost and the expense thereof out of the City Fund.
[24th March, 1892.]

CITY OF SYDNEY
PAVING.

BE it enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Municipal Council of Sydney to pave, amend, and repair all footways, including gateways and crossings, or other entrances from the street to any premises in the City of Sydney now or hereafter requiring to be paved, amended, or repaired with such materials as they may deem expedient, and to defray the cost thereof out of the City Fund.

Council to pave, repair, &c.

2. The seventy-third, seventy-fourth, seventy-fifth, seventy-sixth, and seventy-seventh sections of the “Sydney Corporation Act of 1879,” and so much of section two hundred and seventeen of the said Act as may be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Repeal of sections.

3. This Act may be cited as the “City of Sydney Paving Act,” and shall be read as part of and in conjunction with the “Sydney Corporation Act of 1879.”

Short title.
