

No. III.

DISEASES IN SHEEP
ACTS FURTHER AMENDMENT.

An Act to amend the “Diseases in Sheep Acts Amendment Act of 1878,” and for other purposes. [27th January, 1893.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the “Diseases in Sheep Acts Amendment Act of 1878”: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the “Diseases in Sheep Acts Further Amendment Act of 1893,” and shall be read and construed with the “Diseases in Sheep Act of 1866,” and the “Diseases in Sheep Acts Amendment Act of 1878,” and the “Diseases in Sheep Acts Amendment Act of 1882,” and the “Registration of Brands Act of 1866.”

Provisions.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Diseases in Sheep Acts hereinbefore-mentioned, or in the “Registration of Brands Act of 1866,” the following provisions shall after the passing of this Act be in force, and take effect, namely:—From and after the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, the exemption in favour of the drovers of fat cattle travelling to a specified market for sale contained in section seventeen of the Act forty-first Victoria number nineteen shall be applicable only in the case of fat cattle so travelling in drafts not exceeding two hundred in each draft.
