

No. XXXVII.

DEBTS RECOVERY. An Act to amend the “Small Debts Act,” 10th Victoria No. 10, and the “Small Debts Recovery Act.” [13th June, 1893.]

BE it enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Payment of judgment debt by instalments.

1. A Court of Petty Sessions, whenever it shall make an order or decision for the payment of money under the provisions of the Act tenth Victoria number ten, or any Act amending the same, may direct such money to be paid at such times and by such instalments as the said Court may think fit; and in any case in which payment by instalments shall have been ordered, execution may be had for the whole amount remaining due upon the judgment if default shall be made in the payment of any one such instalment.

Payment by garnishees.

2. In any order for the payment of money by a garnishee made under the provisions of the “Small Debts Recovery Act” or upon an application at any time made by him, the Court may direct such payment to be made at such times and by such instalments as the said Court may think fit, and if default be made in the payment of any one such instalment, execution may issue for so much of the amount then due by the garnishee as will satisfy the judgment debt remaining unpaid at the time of such default.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the “Debts Recovery Act, 1893.”
