

No. XXVII.CROWN LANDS ACT
OF 1889
DECLARATORY.*An Act to declare the meaning of the words
“the publication of the Report of the said Board” as used in the forty-third section of the Crown Lands Act of 1889. [5th
June, 1894.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the forty-third section of the Crown Lands Act of 1889 contains a provision allowing thirty days from the date of “the publication of the Report of the said Board” for the withdrawal of applications for the extension of certain leases: And whereas doubts have arisen as to the date indicated and referred to in the said provision, and it is expedient to now set such doubts at rest: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Meaning of certain words in sec. 43 of the Crown Lands Act of 1889.

1. The words “the publication of the Report of the said Board,” as used in the forty-third section of the Crown Lands Act of 1889, are hereby declared to mean the publication in the Gazette of a notification by the Minister of the final decision of the Land Board or the Land Appeal Court on the application for an extension of a lease under the said section: Provided that such notification in the Gazette shall be published within a reasonable time after such final decision shall have been given.
