

Military Contingent.

Act No. 12, 1899.

An Act for the government and discipline of a Military Contingent for service in South Africa. [20th November, 1899.]

MILITARY CONTINGENT.

WHEREAS it is expedient that effective provision be made for Preamble.
the government and discipline of a Military Contingent, consisting of military forces from time to time raised and despatched for service with Her Majesty's Regular Troops in South Africa: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Contingent shall be subject to the Military and Naval Forces Regulation Act, and, in so far as the said Act and regulations thereunder do not provide for the effective government and discipline of such Contingent, to the Imperial Army Act and any Act amending the same, the Queen's Rules and Regulations, and the Rules and Articles of War, and to such other orders, rules, and regulations to which Her Majesty's Army is for the time being subject: Application to Contingent of certain Acts, orders, rules, and regulations.

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the rates or scales of pay and allowances appointed or to be appointed for the said Contingent, or the period, terms, or conditions of service for or under which any officer, non-commissioned officer, or man of the said Contingent may be engaged.

2. The word "Contingent" means and includes all officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the military forces from time to time raised and despatched by the Government of New South Wales for service with Her Majesty's Regular Forces in South Africa. Definition of "Contingent."

3. This Act may be cited as the "Military Contingent Act, 1899." Short title.
