Payment by instalments.

56 Vic. No. 37 s. 2.

(4) In any order for the payment of money by a garnishee or upon an application at any time made by him the Court may direct such payment to be made at such times and by such instalments as the said Court thinks fit and if default be made in the payment of any one such instalment execution may issue for so much of the amount then due by the garnishee as will satisfy the judgment debt remaining unpaid at the time of such default.

Court may refuse to interfere in certain cases.

45 Vic. No. 27 s. 9.

(5) In proceedings to obtain a garnishee order the Court may in its discretion refuse to interfere where from the smallness of the judgment debt or of the amount to be recovered or of the debt sought to be attached or otherwise the remedy sought would be inadequate worthless or vexatious and subject to any other provisions contained in this Act.

Summons to garnishee to show cause.

Ibid. s. 3.

47. The Court may by the garnishee order or any subsequent order summon the garnishee to appear to show cause why he should not pay to the registrar on behalf of the judgment creditor the debt due from him to the judgment debtor or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment debt.

Attachment of debts by garnishee order.

Ibid. s. 4.

48. Service on the garnishee of a garnishee order or notice to the garnishee of the making of such order shall attach in the hands of the garnishee all debts due owing or accruing from him to the judgment debtor.

Proceedings to levy amounts due from garnishee to judgment debtor.

Ibid. s. 5.

49. If the garnishee does not forthwith pay to the registrar on behalf of the judgment creditor the amount due from him to the judgment debtor or an amount equal to the judgment debt and does not dispute the debt due or claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor or if he does not appear upon summons then the Court may order execution to issue and it may be sued for accordingly without any other previous writ or process to levy the amount due from such garnishee in payment of the judgment debt or towards satisfaction of the same.

Where garnishee disputes liability.

Ibid. s. 6.

50. If the garnishee appears upon summons and disputes his liability the Court instead of making an order that execution shall issue may order the hearing of such summons to stand adjourned until some day to be appointed for that purpose and may direct that upon such adjourned hearing any question necessary for determining the liability of the garnishee be tried and determined and the order for such adjournment shall be served upon the garnishee and shall operate as a plaint entered against him to obtain payment of the sum claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor.

Small Debts Recovery.

51. Payment made by or execution levied upon the garnishee under any proceeding herein provided shall be a valid discharge to him as against the judgment debtor to the amount paid or levied although such proceeding may be set aside or the judgment reversed. Discharge of garnishee. 45 Vic. No. 27 s. 8.

52. (1) In each Court of petty sessions presided over by a police magistrate the registrar shall keep a garnishee book in which entries shall be made of all garnishee orders and proceedings thereon with names dates and statements of the amounts recovered. Garnishee book to be kept. Ibid. s. 10.

(2) Copies of any entries may be taken by any person upon application to the registrar and upon payment of the prescribed fee.

Witnesses.

53. (1) Every person summoned as a witness to attend any of the said Courts of petty sessions shall attend pursuant to such summons and shall be subject to the like actions (to be brought in one of the said Courts) for disobeying such summons as he would be subject to for disobedience to a subpœna issuing out of the Supreme Court. Attendance of witnesses. 10 Vic. No. 10 s. 26.

(2) Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to compel the attendance at any Court of petty sessions of any witness who may not be resident in the district where the cause in which he is summoned to give evidence is to be tried nor to compel any witness to go more than three miles from his home without tender of his reasonable expenses. Expenses. Ibid.

54. Every Court of petty sessions may punish as for contempt in a summary way by fine not exceeding forty shillings to be levied upon the goods and chattels of the offender or by imprisonment for any time not exceeding fourteen days any plaintiff defendant or witness refusing to be sworn or to answer any lawful question. Penalty for refusing to be sworn or answer. Ibid.

Officers.

55. The clerk of the bench or other clerk of the Courts of petty sessions as may from time to time be directed by such Courts respectively shall discharge the duties of registrar. Clerk and registrar. Ibid. s. 6.

56. (1) The Courts of petty sessions shall from time to time appoint a bailiff or bailiffs for the service and execution of the processes orders and judgments authorised by this Act. Bailiffs. Ibid. s. 6.

(2) Any such Courts may appoint a sergeant of police or police constable of their respective districts to be a bailiff of the Court appointing him who shall not therefore become incapable of acting as or forfeit his appointment of such sergeant or constable anything in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Police sergeant or constable may be a bailiff. 42 Vic.
