

Wellington Presbyterian Church Lands.

Act No. 49, 1899.

An Act to cancel the appropriation of certain land in the town of Wellington, to divest the Minister of Public Instruction of his estate in the said land, to dedicate the said land as a site for a Presbyterian Church and Manse, and to authorise certain dealings with the same. [22nd December, 1899.]

WELLINGTON
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH LANDS.

WHEREAS by notice published in the Gazette of the eleventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the land described in the Schedule hereto (which land was on that date Crown lands within the meaning of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861) was under section five of the said Act dedicated by the Governor as the site for a Presbyterian Church and Manse: And whereas, by notification published in accordance with and in pursuance of the Lands for Public Purposes Acquisition Act in the Gazette of the fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, the Governor declared that the said land had been appropriated for a public purpose, that is to say for the erection of a public school at Wellington: And whereas by virtue of such publication the said dedication was thereby cancelled and the said land was thereby vested in the Minister of Public Instruction and his successors on behalf of Her Majesty for an estate of inheritance in fee simple in possession freed and discharged from all trusts, obligations, estates, interests, contracts, charges, rates, rights-of-way, or other easements whatsoever, and to the intent that the legal estate therein, together with all powers incident thereto or conferred by the said Act, should be vested in the Minister as a trustee: And whereas it is desirable to cancel the said appropriation and to divest the Minister of Public Instruction of the estate vested in him as aforesaid, and to dedicate the said land for the same purposes as the land was dedicated as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The appropriation of the land described in the Schedule hereto, notified by the Governor by publication in the Gazette of the fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, is hereby cancelled, and the Minister of Public Instruction is hereby divested
