

Act No. 58, 1900.

BOUNDARY-STREET. An Act to vest certain land in the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage, and to vest certain other land in the Municipal Council of Sydney for the purpose of constructing and opening thereon a public way, with certain powers to sell and lease the said lands ; and to include the said lands within the city of Sydney. [30th November, 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the " Boundary-street Act, 1900."

Land in Schedule One vested in Water and Sewerage Board.

2. The land described in Schedule One is hereby vested for an estate in fee simple in the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage, and such board shall, in respect of the said land, have the same powers of selling, transferring, conveying, and leasing the same as are by section seventeen of the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Act Amendment Act of 1889 conferred on the said board in respect of the land in that section mentioned.

Land in Schedule Two vested in Sydney Municipal Council for a public way.

3. The land described in Schedule Two is hereby vested for an estate in fee simple in the Municipal Council of Sydney, and the said council shall within two years after the commencement of this Act construct and open upon the said land a public way, to be known as Boundary-street, at least sixty-six feet wide, and giving frontage to the land described in Schedule One; and if default is made by the said council in constructing and opening the said street, the Governor may cause the said street to be constructed and opened of the width of sixty-six feet at the expense of the said council. The said street, when constructed constructed and opened, shall be a public way within the meaning of the Sydney Corporation Act of 1879, and a street within the meaning of the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Act of 1880.

4. The Municipal Council of Sydney may sell, grant, alienate, and convey, or may demise for any term not exceeding twenty-one years any portion of the land described in Schedule Two, not being land on which Boundary-street is by this Act directed to be constructed, or on which such street is then constructed.

Power of Council to sell or demise land not used for street.

5. For the purpose of maintaining, altering, repairing, and constructing any works of the Crown or of the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage on or under the land on which Boundary-street is to be constructed, the Crown and the constructing authority for such works and the said board shall, until the abovenamed street is opened, have the same powers, and in the exercise of such powers shall be subject to the same liabilities, as if the said land were a street.

Power to construct and maintain public works as if such land were a street.

6. On and after the commencement of this Act, the boundaries of the city of Sydney and the borough of Paddington respectively shall be and hereby are so altered as to include within the boundaries of the city of Sydney and exclude from the boundaries of the borough of Paddington so much of the land described in Schedules One and Two as was not prior to the commencement of this Act within the boundaries of the city of Sydney.

Extension of boundaries of city of Sydney.

7. Nothing in this Act shall authorise the resumption of any part of the land vested by this Act in the Municipal Council of Sydney, by or on behalf of the Crown or the said board, without paying compensation for the same to the said council.
