

Act No. 10, 1904.

HENRY WAIT BEQUEST.

An Act to authorise the Director of the Government Asylums for the Infirmary to pay to the Parramatta District Hospital and the Parramatta Benevolent Society, in equal shares, certain moneys received and receivable by him under the will of the late Henry Wait.
[4th November, 1904.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Henry Wait, late of Redfern, Sydney, in the State of New South Wales, freeholder, duly made and executed his last will and testament, dated the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and thereby appointed the Perpetual Trustee Company (Limited), of Sydney, the trustees and executors of his said will, and directed that they should stand possessed of his residuary estate in trust (inter alia) as to five hundred pounds for the Infirmary and Destitute Asylum, Parramatta, and as to the residue of his residuary estate to pay and divide equally the same amongst and between the institutions mentioned in his said will: And whereas the said trustees and executors have paid to the Director of the Government Asylums for the Infirmary the sum of one thousand one hundred pounds for and on behalf of the said Infirmary and Destitute Asylum, Parramatta: And whereas it is expedient that the said sum of one thousand one hundred pounds should be divided equally between the Parramatta District Hospital and the Parramatta Benevolent Society: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

The money bequeathed by Henry Wait to the Infirmary and Destitute Asylum, Parramatta, to be divided equally between the Parramatta District Hospital and the Parramatta Benevolent Society.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Henry Wait Bequest Act, 1904."
2. It shall be lawful for the Director of the Government Asylums for the Infirmary to pay to the Parramatta District Hospital and the Parramatta Benevolent Society a moiety each of the one thousand one hundred pounds and interest accrued thereon received by him on behalf of the Infirmary and Destitute Asylum, Parramatta, and of any further sums to be received by him in that behalf under the said bequest.
