

Act No. 13, 1904.

MINERS' ACCIDENT
RELIEF (VALIDATING).

An Act to validate the appointment of certain officers of the Miners' Accident Relief Board; and to validate the acts and appointment of certain committees purporting to be constituted under the Miners' Accident Relief Act, 1900. [25th November, 1904.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the “Miners' Accident Relief (Validating) Act, 1904,” and shall be read as one with the Miners' Accident Relief Act, 1900.

Validation of the appointment of certain officers.

2. All officers of the Board appointed before the commencement of this Act without the recommendation of the Public Service Board shall be deemed to have been duly appointed under and in accordance with the provisions of any law at the time of such appointment in force relating to appointments to the Public Service.

Validation of the appointment of
certain committees
and of their acts.

3. All acts done by any committee for a mine purporting to have been appointed under the provisions of the Miners' Accident Relief Act, 1900, before the commencement of this Act, which could lawfully have been done by a committee duly constituted under the provisions of such Act, are hereby validated, and all such committees shall be and shall have been deemed to have been appointed under and constituted in accordance with the provisions of that Act.
