

Act No. 35, 1904.

DENTAL HOSPITALS
UNION.

An Act to provide for the union of the University Dental Hospital and the Dental Hospital of Sydney; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto. [29th December, 1904.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

Union of dental hospitals.

Constitution of committee.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Dental Hospitals Union Act, 1904," and shall commence and take effect on and from the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five.

2. The University Dental Hospital and the Dental Hospital of Sydney may, after the commencement of this Act, be united under a committee to be appointed as provided in this Act.

Such united hospital shall be called the "United Dental Hospital of Sydney," and shall be only for the gratuitous treatment of the necessitous poor, and, subject to the provisions of this Act, the Public Hospitals Act, 1898, shall apply to such united hospital.

3. The committee of the united hospital shall consist of—

- (a) six members appointed by the Senate of the Sydney University; and
- (b) six members elected by the subscribers to the United Dental Hospital of Sydney.
