

Newcastle Friendly Societies and Trades Hall Site Act Amendment.

Act No. 27, 1905.

An Act to amend the Newcastle Friendly Societies and Trades Hall Site Act, 56 Victoria No. 35; to provide for the election of trustees under the Newcastle Eight-hours Committee Rules; and for other purposes incidental thereto. [2nd December, 1905.]

NEWCASTLE
FRIENDLY SOCIETIES
AND TRADES HALL
AMENDMENT.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the “Newcastle Friendly Societies and Trades Hall Site Act Amendment Act of 1905,” and shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and six.

2. All the estate, right, title, and interest to the land described in Schedule B of the Principal Act is hereby vested in six trustees to be elected from time to time under the provisions of the rules of the Newcastle Eight-hours Committee registered under the Trades Union Act, 1881. Such trustees shall be trustees for the purposes of the Trades Hall, Newcastle, and shall be superseded from time to time by their successors as elected under such rules, provided that two of such trustees shall retire every two years. And the said land shall be vested in the said trustees from time to time without the necessity for any conveyance or assignment whatsoever, and the trustees for the time being shall administer the provisions of the Principal Act as though they had been the original trustees until their successors be elected, and shall continue the maintenance on the said land of a hall for the use of trade unions registered under the Trades Union Act, 1881.

3. So much of clauses one and three of the Principal Act as refers to the personnel of the trustees is by this Act hereby repealed.

4. The Governor may make regulations to provide for the election of trustees under this Act until such time as the rules of the Newcastle Eight-hours Committee providing for the same are duly approved as provided by law.
