

Act No. 22, 1911.

TRAMWAYS (CARRIAGE OF GOODS).

An Act to authorise the carriage of goods upon tramways; to amend the Government Railways Act, 1901; and for purposes incidental thereto. [21st December, 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the “Tramways (Carriage of Goods) Act, 1911,” and shall be construed with the Government Railways Act, 1901.

Tramways may be used for carriage of goods.

2. The Chief Commissioner for Railways and Tramways may, in his discretion and upon notification of his intention so to do in the Gazette, use all tramways vested in him or under his control for the purpose of carrying goods :

Proviso.

Provided that such tramways shall not be so used in George-street between the Circular Quay and Rawson-place, nor in Pitt-street between the Circular Quay and Hay-street, nor in Castlereagh-street between the Circular Quay and Hay-street, Sydney, except for the carriage of materials to be used for repairs to and renewals of the tramways.

By-laws.

3. The said Commissioner may make by-laws regulating and determining the conditions upon which he will undertake such carriage, and in particular the class of goods which may be so carried. Subject to
