

UNIVERSITY (SENATE) AMENDMENT ACT.

---

Act No. 2, 1918.

George V, An Act to provide that the members of the present No. 2. Senate of the University of Sydney shall continue in office until a day to be proclaimed by the Governor, and for that purpose to amend the Acts relating to the said University.
 [Assented to, 7th March, 1918.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "University (Senate) Amendment Act, 1918."

Members of the Senate to continue in office until a day to be proclaimed.

2. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act relating to the University of Sydney, the members of the present Senate of that University shall continue to hold office until a day to be proclaimed in the Gazette by the Governor.

On the day so proclaimed those members of the Senate who, but for this Act, would have retired on or before that day, shall then retire, and the vacancies created by such retirement shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts.

Saving.

(2) Nothing herein shall prevent any such member from resigning his office, and any vacancy occurring by death or resignation shall be filled as provided by the said Acts.
