

LEGAL PRACTITIONERS AMENDMENT ACT.

Act No. 29, 1920.

An Act to admit Richard Denis Meagher to practise as an attorney, solicitor, and proctor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales; to amend the Legal Practitioners Act of 1898, and the Charter of Justice; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto. [Assented to, 29th December, 1920.]

George V.
No. 29.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the “Legal Practitioners Amendment Act, 1920.”

2. From and after the passing of this Act, Richard Denis Meagher shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Charter of Justice or the Legal Practitioners Act of 1898, be admitted to appear, practise, and act, and continue to appear, practise, and act as an attorney, solicitor, and proctor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, and of all and any of its jurisdictions to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if he had been so admitted by the Supreme Court on the date of the passing of this Act notwithstanding any decision of any court heretofore made or given, and notwithstanding any general rule or qualification which the said court has made and established or may make and establish before the passing of this Act for the admission of such attorneys, solicitors, and proctors.

Admission of Richard
Denis Meagher as an attorney, solicitor, and proctor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

George V,
No. 29.

Possession of rights,
privileges,
and obligations subject to the discipline of the Supreme Court.

3. Upon and after the passing of this Act the said Richard Denis Meagher shall possess all the rights, privileges, and obligations of an attorney, solicitor, and proctor of the said Supreme Court, including the right of audience in all courts whatsoever in which attorneys, solicitors, and proctors of the said Supreme Court now or hereafter shall have such right, and shall be subject as such attorney, solicitor, and proctor to the discipline of the said Supreme Court in respect of any act, omission, or conduct subsequent to the passing of this Act.
