

DAVID MORRIS REVESTING ACT.

Act No. 38, 1922.

An Act to declare certain land resumed for an irrigation settlement at Penrith to be vested in David Morris notwithstanding a certain notification of resumption; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 28th November, 1922.]

George V,
No. 38.

WHEREAS by notification in the Gazette of the twentieth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty, in pursuance of section one hundred and ninety-seven of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, among other lands a certain area of fifty-one acres two roods and twelve perches in the parish of Castlereagh, county of Cumberland, being the land comprised in certificate of title, volume one thousand

Preamble.

George V, four hundred and ten, folio eighty-nine, was resumed for No. 38. the purpose mentioned in the notification: And whereas it has been found that the said parcel of land is not required for the said purpose, and it has been agreed that the said land shall be declared to be vested in David Morris, notwithstanding the said notification of resumption: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the “David Morris Revesting Act, 1922.”

Land vested in David Morris. 2. The land mentioned as being comprised in certificate of title, volume one thousand four hundred and ten, folio eighty-nine, is hereby declared to be vested in David Morris, the registered proprietor for all the estate and interest therein certified by the said certificate of title, subject to such encumbrances, liens, and interests (if any) as are noted thereon, and to the quit rent reserved by the Crown grant mentioned in such certificate, notwithstanding the said notification of resumption.