

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (AMENDMENT) ACT.

Act No. 38, 1931.

An Act to make certain provisions relating to the application of paragraph (b) of subsection two of section thirty of the Local Government Act, 1919, to and in respect of the first ordinary triennial election of aldermen and councillors to be held after the commencement of this Act; to amend the Local Government Act, 1919, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. George V.
No. 38, 1931.
[Assented to, 29th September, 1931.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the “Local Government (Amendment) Act, 1931,” and shall be read with the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts. Short title.

No. 38, 1931.

(2) The Local Government Act, 1919, as so amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Temporary qualification for office.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph (b) of subsection two of section thirty of the Principal Act, a person shall not be disqualified from being elected at the first ordinary triennial election of aldermen or councillors to be held after the commencement of this Act, or, if elected at such election, from holding office or acting therein by reason only of the fact that he has not before nomination paid—

(a) any rates; or

(b) any charges for the removal of nightsoil or garbage,

which at any time within the period of two years next preceding the date upon which nomination day falls became due and payable by him to the council.
