Any such notice may be given to the person to whom it is addressed, personally or by registered letter sent through the post to his last known place of abode or business in New South Wales.

(2) Any person who without reasonable excuse fails, after receipt of a notice under subsection one of this section, to comply with the requirements of the notice shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred pounds.

Offences.
cf. Act No.
4, 1941,
s. 8.

8. (1) Any person who—

- (a) obtains or attempts to obtain payment of any moneys from the special account to which he is not entitled;
- (b) makes any statement in any application under this Act which is false or misleading in any material particular, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred pounds.

(2) Where any person has been convicted of an offence against subsection one of this section, he shall be liable to forfeit all moneys which would otherwise be payable to him from the special account.

(3) Where any amount has been paid from the special account to any person who is not entitled thereto, or who has failed to comply with any condition or stipulation attached to the payment of such amount to him, he shall forthwith repay such amount to the prescribed authority and, if he fails so to do, such amount may be recovered by the prescribed authority as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Penalties.
Ibid. s. 9.

9. (1) Any person contravening any of the provisions of this Act or the regulations where no penalty is expressly provided shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

(2) Any penalty imposed by this Act or the regulations may be recovered in a summary manner before a stipendiary or police magistrate.

Regulations.

- (a) prescribe the manner of making applications under this Act;
- (b) require information to be furnished by applicants in respect of their applications;
- (c) require applications made and information furnished to be verified by statutory declarations;
- (d) prescribe the forms required under this Act;
- (e) prescribe the time within which applications shall be lodged;
- (f) prescribe the basis of payment under this Act to cereal growers who are parties to a share-farming agreement.

(2) Such regulations shall—

- (i) be published in the Gazette;
- (ii) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified therein;
- (iii) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after publication if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such regulations have been laid before such House disallowing any regulation or part thereof, such regulation or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

11. The Farmers' Relief Act, 1932-1943, is amended by inserting after section 33F the following new section:—
