Superannuation Legislation Amendment Act 2006 No 53

Act No 53, 2006

An Act to amend various public sector and parliamentary superannuation Acts with respect to police hurt on duty benefits, police superannuation benefits, the making of salary sacrifice contributions, the determination of salary for superannuation purposes and the nomination of the commencement of the payment of pensions; and for other purposes. [Assented to 20 June 2006]

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Superannuation Legislation Amendment Act 2006.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Amendment of Acts

The Acts specified in Schedule 1 are amended as set out in that Schedule.

4 Repeal of Act

- (1) This Act is repealed on the day following the day on which all of the provisions of this Act have commenced.
- (2) The repeal of this Act does not, because of the operation of section 30 of the Interpretation Act 1987, affect any amendment made by this Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Acts

(Section 3)

1.1 Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act 1971 No 53

Section 32D

Insert after section 32C:

32D Nominating commencement date of pension

- (1) Despite any other provision of this Act, the payment period of a pension under this Act to which a person is entitled to payment commences on:
 - (a) if a date is nominated in accordance with this section—the date so nominated, or
 - (b) in any other case—the default date.
- (2) A person who is, or is to be, entitled to be paid a pension under this Act may, by notice in writing served on the trustees, nominate the date on which the payment period commences, if such a nomination is not inconsistent with a relevant Commonwealth superannuation standard.
- (3) A notice under this section must:
 - (a) nominate the date on which the payment period commences, and
 - (b) be in the form approved by the trustees, and
 - (c) be served on the trustees not later than the expiry date.
- (4) A notice under this section must not nominate a date earlier than the default date.
- (5) A notice under this section is irrevocable.
- (6) This section does not affect whether any person is entitled to a pension or when any person becomes entitled to a pension.
- (7) A person is not entitled to payment of a pension under this Act in respect of any period earlier than the commencement of the payment period of the pension.
- (8) In this section:

default date means, in respect of a pension under this Act, the date on which the payment period of the pension would, but for this section, commence.

expiry date means, in respect of a pension under this Act, the date that is 3 months after the default date in respect of the pension.

payment period means, in respect of a pension under this Act, the period for which the pension is to be paid.

1.2 Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906 No 28

[1] Section 5B Contributor who is executive officer

Insert “the whole of” after “commute” in section 5B (7A) (b).

[2] Section 8 Determination of members medically unfit

Insert after section 8 (2):

- (2A) For the purposes of subsection (2), the duties of the office in the police force in which a member of the police force is then employed includes (but is not limited to) the duties of a police officer referred to in section 14 (1) of the Police Act 1990.

[3] Section 8A Disengagement benefit for members aged between 45–55

Insert “wholly” after “force and had” in the definition of E in section 8A (5).

[4] Section 9A Commencement of pension

Omit section 9A (4). Insert instead:

- (4) An annual superannuation allowance granted under section 10 to a former member of the police force who resigned or retired is, subject to this Act, payable as from:
- (a) the date the former member lodged the application for the allowance that was determined by STC certifying the matters referred to in section 10B (2) (b), or
 - (b) such earlier date as STC may determine if STC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that merit STC doing so.

[5] Section 9B Preserved benefit

Insert “wholly” after “force and had” in the definition of E in section 9B (6) (b).

[6] Section 9B (6AA) (e), (6AB) and (6AC)

Insert “the whole of” after “commute” wherever occurring.

[7] Section 10 Superannuation allowance where member hurt on duty

Omit “would have been” from paragraph (b) of the definition of disabled member of the police force in section 10 (1).

Insert instead “was”.

[8] Section 10 (1BA)

Insert after section 10 (1B):

(1BA) A superannuation allowance referred to in subsection (1A) or an additional amount of a superannuation allowance referred to in subsection (1D) is not payable to a disabled member of the police force unless an application for payment of the allowance or additional amount concerned is made:

- (a) before the member reaches the age of 60 years, or
- (b) not later than 5 years after the member resigns or retires, whichever is the later.

[9] Section 10 (2) (a)

Insert “wholly” before “commuted”.

[10] Section 10 (3)

Insert after section 10 (2):

(3) If a superannuation allowance payable to a former member of the police force was partially commuted under Division 3, the allowance payable under subsection (1A) in respect of the member is to be reduced by the proportion that the commuted part of the superannuation allowance bears to the whole of the superannuation allowance.

[11] Section 10A

Insert after section 10:

10A Injury management program

(1) STC is not to commence to pay a benefit otherwise payable under section 10 in respect of a member of the police force if the Commissioner of Police decides that a reasonable direction given to the member in respect of the member’s participation in an injury management program has, as at the time of the decision, not been complied with by the member.

- (2) If the Commissioner makes such a decision, the Commissioner must give written notice of the decision to STC and to the member.
- (3) The Commissioner must not so decide unless:
 - (a) the injury management program was approved by the Commissioner as being no less beneficial to participants in the program than any comparable injury management program under the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998 applicable to members of the police force, and
 - (b) the member failed to comply with a reasonable direction given to the member in respect of the member's participation in the program, and
 - (c) the member was given a reasonable opportunity to comply, and
 - (d) the member was warned in writing that failure to comply might result in the member not receiving a benefit under this Act.

[12] Section 10B Medical examination of disabled member and determination of whether hurt on duty

Insert "of the member at the time of the certification" after "mind" in section 10B (1).

[13] Section 10B (2) (b)

Omit "would have been". Insert instead "was".

[14] Section 10B (2B)

Omit "would have been" where firstly and secondly occurring.

Insert instead "was".

[15] Section 10B (2BA)

Insert after section 10B (2B):

- (2BA) For the purposes of subsections (2A) and (2B), the duties of the office in the police force in which a member of the police force is then or was employed includes (but is not limited to) the duties of a police officer referred to in section 14 (1) of the Police Act 1990.

[16] Section 10C Redemption of superannuation allowance granted to disabled member

Insert “the whole or part of” after “apply to” in section 10C (3).

[17] Section 11 Grant of superannuation allowance to the surviving spouse or de facto partner of a former member of the police force who dies after the commencement of Schedule 1 (7) to the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Amendment Act 1988

Insert “wholly” after “who has” in section 11 (2) (b).

Insert after section 11 (2):

- (3) If a superannuation allowance payable to a former member of the police force was partially commuted under Division 3, the allowance payable under subsection (1) in respect of the death of the member is to be reduced by the proportion that the commuted part of the superannuation allowance bears to the whole of the superannuation allowance.

[19] Section 11AA Grant of superannuation allowance to the surviving spouse or de facto partner of a former member of the police force who dies after the commencement of Schedule 1.4 [10] to the Superannuation Legislation Amendment Act 1997

Insert “wholly” after “who has” in section 11AA (2) (b).

[20] Section 11AA (3)

Insert after section 11AA (2):

- (3) If a superannuation allowance payable to a former member of the police force was partially commuted under Division 3, the allowance payable under subsection (1) in respect of the death of the member is to be reduced by the proportion that the commuted part of the superannuation allowance bears to the whole of the superannuation allowance.

[21] Section 11D Grant of superannuation allowance to surviving spouse or de facto partner of certain former members

Insert “wholly” after “who has” in section 11D (2) (b).

[22] Section 11D (2A)

Insert after section 11D (2):

- (2A) If a superannuation allowance payable to a former member of the police force was partially commuted under Division 3, the allowance payable under subsection (1) in respect of the death of the member is to be reduced by the proportion that the commuted part of the superannuation allowance bears to the whole of the superannuation allowance.

[23] Section 12 Superannuation allowance where a member or former member dies as a result of being hurt on duty

Insert “wholly” before “commuted” in section 12 (1D) (a).

Insert after section 12 (1D):

- (2) If a superannuation allowance payable to a member or former member of the police force was partially commuted under Division 3, the allowance payable under subsection (1) in respect of the death of the member or former member is to be reduced by the proportion that the commuted part of the superannuation allowance bears to the whole of the superannuation allowance.

[25] Section 12A Allowance in respect of certain children

Insert “wholly” before “commuted” in section 12A (2B) (a).

[26] Section 14J Commutation on normal or early retirement of member

Omit section 14J (2). Insert instead:

- (2) A person who becomes entitled to a superannuation allowance to which this section applies may, on becoming so entitled, commute the whole or part of that allowance.
- (2A) A person who is entitled to a superannuation allowance to which this section applies and who has not previously commuted the allowance under this section may commute the whole or part of that allowance on the day on which the person attains 60 years of age.

[27] Section 14J (3)

Insert “under this section” after “allowance”.

[28] Section 14J (3A)

Omit “such an election”. Insert instead “an election under subsection (2)”.

[29] Section 14J (3B)

Insert after section 14J (3A):

- (3B) The date on which an election under subsection (2A) is to take effect is to be the day the person making the election attains the age of 60, irrespective of the date on which the election is made.

[30] Section 14J (4)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

- (4) If a person elects to commute a superannuation allowance under this section, the lump sum payable from the Fund to the person is to be calculated by multiplying the attributed salary of office of the person by the appropriate commutation factor listed in Schedule 3 and by the equivalent service ratio for the person as at the date the person retired and, in the case of a partial commutation, by the proportion that the commuted part of the allowance bears to the whole of the allowance.

[31] Section 14K

Omit the section. Insert instead:

14K Commutation on discharge of disabled member

- (1) This section applies to a superannuation allowance payable to a disabled member of the police force under:
- (a) section 7, or
 - (b) section 10.
- (2) A person who is entitled to a superannuation allowance to which this section applies and who has not previously commuted the allowance under this section may commute the whole or part of that allowance on:
- (a) the day on which the person attains 55 years of age, or
 - (b) the day on which the person becomes entitled to that allowance,
- whichever is the later.
- (3) The date on which an election under subsection (2) is to take effect is to be:
- (a) the day on which the person attains 55 years of age, or
 - (b) the day on which the person became entitled to that allowance,
- whichever is the later.

- (4) A person who is entitled to a superannuation allowance to which this section applies and who has not previously commuted the allowance under this section may commute the whole or part of that allowance on the day on which the person attains 60 years of age.
- (5) The date on which an election under subsection (4) is to take effect is to be the day on which the person attains 60 years of age.
- (6) If a disabled member of the police force, having been paid a superannuation allowance under section 7 or a gratuity under section 14, is granted a hurt-on-duty allowance under section 10 after having attained the age of 60 years, the member may, as the case requires, commute to a lump sum:
 - (a) the difference (if any) between the allowance granted under section 10 (1A) (a) and the superannuation allowance paid to that member under section 7, or
 - (b) the balance (if any) of the allowance granted under section 10 (1A) (a) after an appropriate adjustment has been made for the repayment of the gratuity that has been paid to that member under section 14.
- (7) If a disabled member of the police force, having been granted an additional amount of allowance under section 10 (1A) (b) or (c), elects to commute to a lump sum an allowance under section 10 (1A) in accordance with subsection (6), the member must commute the additional amount to the extent that it has not already been commuted to a lump sum under section 10C.
- (8) If a disabled member of the police force makes no election to commute to a lump sum an allowance granted under section 10 (1A) because the member has already elected to commute an equivalent allowance payable under section 7, the member is, for the purposes of subsection (7), to be treated as having elected to commute the first-mentioned allowance in accordance with subsection (6).
- (9) The date on which an election under subsection (6) takes effect is the date on which the election is made.
- (10) A person wishing to commute a superannuation allowance under subsection (2), (4) or (6) must lodge the election to do so with STC in the form and within the time required by STC.
- (11) If a person elects to commute a superannuation allowance under this section, the lump sum payable from the Fund to the person is to be calculated by multiplying the annual superannuation allowance payable at the time the election takes effect by the appropriate commutation factor listed in the Table to this subsection and, in the case of a partial commutation, by the proportion that the commuted part of the allowance (including any additional allowance amount commuted under subsection (7)) bears to the whole of the allowance.

Age at time commutation election takes effect	Commutation factor
55	11.82
56	11.64
57	11.46
58	11.28
59	11.10
60 or older	10.92

- (12) If STC has made a determination under section 14AA in relation to a lump sum resulting from the commutation of a superannuation allowance to which this section applies, the lump sum is reduced by the amount specified in STC's determination.

[32] Section 21 Determination by District Court

Insert "10A (1)," after "section" in section 21 (1) (b).

[33] Section 23D

Insert after section 23C:

23D Nominating commencement date of superannuation allowance

- (1) Despite any other provision of this Act, the payment period of a superannuation allowance under this Act to which a person is entitled to payment commences on:
- (a) if a date is nominated in accordance with this section—the date so nominated, or
 - (b) in any other case—the default date.
- (2) A person who is, or is to be, entitled to be paid a superannuation allowance under this Act may, by notice in writing served on STC, nominate the date on which the payment period commences, if such a nomination is not inconsistent with a relevant Commonwealth superannuation standard.

- (3) A notice under this section must:
 - (a) nominate the date on which the payment period commences, and
 - (b) be in the form approved by STC, and
 - (c) be served on STC not later than the expiry date.
- (4) A notice under this section must not nominate a date earlier than the default date.
- (5) A notice under this section is irrevocable.
- (6) This section does not affect whether any person is entitled to a superannuation allowance or when any person becomes entitled to a superannuation allowance.
- (7) A person is not entitled to payment of a superannuation allowance under this Act in respect of any period earlier than the commencement of the payment period of the allowance.
- (8) In this section:

default date means, in respect of a superannuation allowance under this Act, the date on which the payment period of the allowance would, but for this section, commence.

expiry date means, in respect of a superannuation allowance under this Act, the date that is 3 months after the default date in respect of the allowance.

payment period means, in respect of a superannuation allowance under this Act, the period for which the allowance under this Act is to be paid.

[34] Schedule 3 Lump sum benefits for normal or early retirement—commutation factors (multiples of attributed final salary of office)

Omit the heading to the Column “Age at exit”.

Insert instead “Age at date election takes effect”.

[35] Schedule 6 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):

Superannuation Legislation Amendment Act 2006, but only to the extent to which it amends this Act

[36] Schedule 6, Part 9

Insert after Part 8:

Part 9 Superannuation Legislation Amendment Act 2006

28 Certification not invalid if in compliance with Act as amended

A certification given by STC under section 10B (2A) or (2B) is not invalid merely because of a failure to comply with this Act as in force before the commencement of an amendment made to this Act by the Superannuation Legislation Amendment Act 2006, if the certification was given before that commencement and would have been valid had it been given under this Act as in force after that commencement.

29 Commutation of allowance of disabled member already 55 or older

- (1) A person who:
 - (a) is entitled to a superannuation allowance to which section 14K applies, and
 - (b) has not previously commuted the allowance under that section, and
 - (c) had attained the age of 55 before the commencement of section 14K, as inserted by the Superannuation Legislation Amendment Act 2006, and
 - (d) is not 60 years of age or older, may commute the whole or part of that allowance, in accordance with section 14K, on that commencement.
- (2) The date on which an election under subclause (1) is to take effect is to be the day of that commencement.

1.3 State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987 No 212

[1] Section 4 Salary

Insert after section 4 (1B):

- (1C) Despite subsection (1), the regulations may provide that the salary of an employee or class of employees (other than an executive officer) for the purposes of this Act is to be determined in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

- (1D) A regulation may be made under subsection (1C) only if the Minister and the Treasurer certify in writing that:
- (a) there has been a change in the basis on which the remuneration of the employee or class of employees is determined, and
 - (b) the effect of that change is to change the basis of remuneration to an annualised one, and
 - (c) the effect of the regulation is not to reduce the benefits that would have accrued under this Act to the employee or class of employees, had there been no change in the basis of remuneration, and
 - (d) the making of the regulation and associated arrangements will not result in a greater financial cost to the Government than if the regulation and associated arrangements were not made.

[2] Section 4B

Insert after section 4A:

4B Salary not to be affected by salary sacrifice

Despite sections 4 and 4A, the making of a salary sacrifice contribution within the meaning of the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 in respect of an employee does not affect the amount that would otherwise constitute the salary of the employee for the purposes of this Act.

[3] Schedule 5 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):

Superannuation Legislation Amendment Act 2006, but only to the extent to which it amends this Act

1.4 State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 No 211

[1] Section 3 Definitions

Insert in appropriate order in section 3 (1):

employee contribution means a contribution made under Part 3, other than a salary sacrifice contribution.

salary sacrifice contribution means a contribution paid to the Fund for crediting in a contributor's account by the contributor's employer in accordance with an agreement referred to in section 19A (b).

[2] Section 4 Salary

Insert after section 4 (1B):

- (1C) Despite subsection (1), the regulations may provide that the salary of an employee or class of employees (other than an executive officer) for the purposes of this Act is to be determined in the manner prescribed by the regulations.
- (1D) A regulation may be made under subsection (1C) only if the Minister and the Treasurer certify in writing that:
 - (a) there has been a change in the basis on which the remuneration of the employee or class of employees is determined, and
 - (b) the effect of that change is to change the basis of remuneration to an annualised one, and
 - (c) the effect of the regulation is not to reduce the benefits that would have accrued under this Act to the employee or class of employees, had there been no change in the basis of remuneration, and
 - (d) the making of the regulation and associated arrangements will not result in a greater financial cost to the Government than if the regulation and associated arrangements were not made.

[3] Section 4B

Insert after section 4A:

4B Salary not to be affected by salary sacrifice

Despite sections 4 and 4A, the making of a salary sacrifice contribution under this Act in respect of a contributor does not affect the amount that would otherwise constitute the salary of the contributor for the purposes of this Act.

[4] Section 12 Contributors' accounts

Omit section 12 (2). Insert instead:

- (2) There is to be credited to a contributor's account:
 - (a) the contributions made by the contributor to the Fund, and
 - (b) any salary sacrifice contributions made by the contributor's employer under Part 3 in respect of the contributor.

[5] Section 12 (3) (a1)

Insert after section 12 (3) (a):

- (a1) an amount equal to the income tax payable by STC under Commonwealth taxation law in respect of any salary sacrifice contribution credited to a contributor's account,

[6] Section 14 Reserves for employers

[7] Part 3, heading

Omit the heading. Insert instead:

Part 3 Employee contributions and salary sacrifice contributions

[8] Section 19 Election to have employee or salary sacrifice contributions paid to the Fund

Omit section 19 (2) (b). Insert instead:

- (b) specify the rate at which contributions are, subject to this Act, to be credited to the contributor's account in respect of the employee (or, in the case of salary sacrifice contributions, retained in that account as provided by section 19B), being the rate of 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 or 9 per cent of the employee's salary,

[9] Sections 19A and 19B

Insert after section 19:

19A Contributions by or on behalf of employees

Contributions may be made to the Fund for crediting to a contributor's account:

- (a) by the contributor (employee contributions), and
- (b) by the contributor's employer in accordance with an agreement between the contributor and the employer under which the contributor is to forego remuneration the contributor is yet to earn and the employer is to apply the remuneration foregone to the cost of making contributions on behalf of the contributor (salary sacrifice contributions).

19B Amount payable for salary sacrifice contributions to allow for the contributions tax payable

The amount payable to the Fund in respect of a salary sacrifice contribution in respect of a contributor is the amount that is necessary for an amount at the rate specified in accordance with this Part to be retained in the contributor's account out of the salary sacrifice contribution after the income tax amount is deducted under section 12 (3) (a1).

[10] Section 25 Liability to contribute

Omit section 25 (1). Insert instead:

- (1) Where an election under section 19 takes effect, the contributor who made the election becomes, and remains, liable to ensure that contributions are paid to the Fund in the amount necessary to result in an amount being credited to the contributor's account (or, in the case of salary sacrifice contributions, retained in that account as provided by section 19B), at the rate specified under section 19 (2) (b) and, except as provided by sections 27, 28, 29 and 35A, to ensure those contributions are paid in respect of successive contribution periods:
 - (a) commencing with the contribution period in which the contributor's entry date occurs, and
 - (b) ending with the last complete contribution period ending on or before the contributor's exit date.

[11] Section 25 (2)

Omit "A contributor's contributions to the Fund shall be".

Insert instead "Contributions under this Part are to be".

Omit “the contribution that the contributor is required to pay to the Fund”.

Insert instead “contributions payable under this Part”.

[21] Section 27 (5)

Omit “to the contributor”. Insert instead “in respect of the contributor”.

[22] Section 28

Omit the section. Insert instead:

28 Variations of contribution rate: hardship

- (1) Despite section 27 (1), STC may, if it is satisfied that a continuation of contributions under this Part in respect of a contributor would result in financial hardship for the contributor, accept at any time an election under that subsection to reduce, as from a date determined by STC having regard to the circumstances of the contributor, the rate of contributions to be credited to the contributor's account (or, in the case of salary sacrifice contributions, retained in that account as provided by section 19B) under this Part.
- (2) Despite section 27 (1), an election referred to in subsection (1) may specify as the varied rate the rate of 0 per cent.
- (3) During a period when a rate of 0 per cent is in force, no contributions are payable under this Part.
- (4) After an election referred to in subsection (1) is accepted by STC, STC must refund any resulting excess of contributions paid to the Fund under this Part to the person who paid them, after the date determined by STC for commencement of the new rate.
- (5) STC's acceptance of an election for a rate of 0 per cent is to be given only for a limited period or periods.

[23] Section 29 Contributions during leave without pay and other matters

Omit "to make contributions to the Fund" wherever occurring (except section 29 (5)).

Insert instead "to make contributions to the Fund under this Part".

[24] Section 29 (4)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

- (4) A contributor liable to make contributions under subsection (2) or (3) is to pay to the Fund in accordance with directions given by STC such contributions as would have been, but for the contributor being on leave without pay, required to be paid under this Part if the contributor had continued to be paid salary by the employer during the contribution period or periods concerned at the rate at which the contributor would have been paid.

[25] Section 30 Resumption of contributions after break in employment

Omit “to resume making contributions to the Fund” from section 30 (2).

Insert instead “for the resumption of contributions under this Part”.

[26] Section 30 (3) (b) and (c)

Omit section 30 (3) (b). Insert instead:

- (b) the contributor is liable to make contributions to the Fund under this Part in respect of the intervening contribution period or periods, as if the contributor had been employed with the employer with whom the contributor has resumed employment for the duration of the intervening contribution period or periods, and
- (c) the employer with whom the contributor has resumed employment is liable to make contributions to the Fund under Part 4 in respect of the intervening contribution period or periods, as if the contributor had been employed with the employer for the duration of the intervening contribution period or periods.

[27] Section 45A Power of STC to reduce benefits to offset certain tax liabilities

Insert after section 45A (1):

- (1AA) Subsection (1) does not apply to an income tax liability if an amount equal to the liability was deducted under section 12 (3) (a1) in respect of the liability.

[28] Schedule 6 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):

Superannuation Legislation Amendment Act 2006, but only to the extent to which it amends this Act

1.5 Superannuation Act 1916 No 28

[1] Section 3A Salary

Insert after section 3A (1B):

- (1C) Despite subsection (1), the regulations may provide that the salary of an employee or class of employees (other than an executive officer) for the purposes of this Act is to be determined in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

- (1D) A regulation may be made under subsection (1C) only if the Minister and the Treasurer certify in writing that:
- (a) there has been a change in the basis on which the remuneration of the employee or class of employees is determined, and
 - (b) the effect of that change is to change the basis of remuneration to an annualised one, and
 - (c) the effect of the regulation is not to reduce the benefits that would have accrued under this Act to the employee or class of employees, had there been no change in the basis of remuneration, and
 - (d) the making of the regulation and associated arrangements will not result in a greater financial cost to the Government than if the regulation and associated arrangements were not made.

Insert after section 61V:

61VA Nominating commencement date of pension

- (1) Despite any other provision of this Act, the payment period of a pension under this Act to which a person is entitled to payment commences on:
 - (a) if a date is nominated in accordance with this section—the date so nominated, or
 - (b) in any other case—the default date.
- (2) A person who is, or is to be, entitled to be paid a pension under this Act may, by notice in writing served on STC, nominate the date on which the payment period commences, if such a nomination is not inconsistent with a relevant Commonwealth superannuation standard.

- (3) A notice under this section must:
 - (a) nominate the date on which the payment period commences, and
 - (b) be in the form approved by STC, and
 - (c) be served on STC not later than the expiry date.
- (4) A notice under this section must not nominate a date earlier than the default date.
- (5) A notice under this section is irrevocable.
- (6) This section does not affect whether any person is entitled to a pension or when any person becomes entitled to a pension.
- (7) A person is not entitled to payment of a pension under this Act in respect of any period earlier than the commencement of the payment period of the pension.
- (8) In this section:

default date means, in respect of a pension under this Act, the date on which the payment period of the pension would, but for this section, commence.

expiry date means, in respect of a pension under this Act, the date that is 3 months after the default date in respect of the pension.

payment period means, in respect of a pension under this Act, the period for which the pension is to be paid.
