

1990 - No. 128

ESSENTIAL SERVICES ACT 1988 - ORDER
DECLARING A STATE OF EMERGENCY IN RELATION TO TRANSPORTATION OF FREIGHT BY ROAD

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 34 of 5 March 1990]

(L.S.) D. J. MARTIN, Governor.

WHEREAS it appears that:

- (a) the transportation of freight by road into, out of and within New South Wales (including the loading and unloading of vehicles in connection with any such transportation) is likely to be interrupted or reduced; and
- (b) an emergency situation is likely to exist in relation to that transportation:

Therefore, I, Rear Admiral Sir DAVID JAMES MARTIN, Governor of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of section 10 of the Essential Services Act 1988, do, by this my Order, declare that a state of emergency exists in relation to the transportation of freight by road into, out of and within New South Wales (including the loading and unloading of vehicles in connection with any such transportation).

This Order applies to and has operation throughout the whole of the State of New South Wales.

The Minister for Industrial Relations and Employment is, pursuant to section 10 (2) (b) of the Essential Services Act 1988, the Minister who may give directions under section 11 of that Act in relation to the above essential service.

* Replaces Order published in Gazette No. 31 of 2 March 1990.

1990 - No. 128

This Order takes effect from its making and (unless sooner revoked) continues in force for the period of 30 days.

Dated at Sydney, this 23rd day of February 1990.

By His Excellency's Command,

NICK GREINER
Premier.
