2. Commencement
3. Exercise of Board's functions

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to make a transitional arrangement consequent on the proposed commencement of the provisions of the Education Reform Act 1990 relating the establishment of the Board of Studies and the proposed repeal of the provisions of the Education and Public Instruction Act 1987 relating to the establishment of the Board of Secondary Education. Pending the full commencement of the Education Reform Act 1990, the Regulation enables the Board of Studies to exercise the functions of the Board of Secondary Education under those provisions of the Education and Public Instruction Act 1987 that remain in force.
