

1990 - No. 331

PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS ACT 1979 - REGULATION

(Relating to the use of prescribed electrical devices)

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 76 of 15 June 1990]

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1979, has been pleased to make the Regulation set forth hereunder.

DAVID HAY
Minister for Local Government.

Commencement

1. This Regulation commences on

Amendments

2. The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (General) Regulation 1981 is amended:

- (a) by omitting from Columns 1, 2 and 3 of Schedule 1 the matter relating to the device commonly known as an “electro-ejaculator” and by inserting instead the following matter:

The device commonly known as an electro-ejaculator.	Collecting semen from conscious animals.	Cattle, sheep.
	Collecting semen from tranquillised or anaesthetised animals.	Animals (including cattle and sheep).
(b) by omitting from Columns 1, 2 and 3 of Schedule 1 the matter relating to the device known as an "electric fence" and by inserting instead the following matter:
Electric fence.	Confining and controlling animals within an enclosure.	Animals (other than poultry, dogs or cats).
	Excluding animals from an enclosure.	Animals (including poultry, dogs and cats).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (General) Regulation 1981 so as:

- (a) to extend the permissible use of an electro-ejaculator to allow the collecting of semen from conscious cattle and sheep and to allow the collecting of semen from tranquillised or anaesthetised animals including cattle and sheep; and
 - (b) to extend the permissible use of an electric fence to excluding animals from an enclosure.
-