

1990—No. 776

PUBLIC HEALTH ACT 1902—REGULATION

(Exemptions from minimum floor space requirements for sleeping accommodation)

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 167 of 14 December 1990]

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Public Health Act 1902, has been pleased to make the Regulation set forth hereunder.

PETER COLLINS
Minister for Health.

---

Commencement

1. This Regulation commences on 14 December 1990.

Amendment

2. The Public Health Regulations are amended by inserting at the end of Regulation 41 the following clauses:

(2) The requirements of clause (1) do not apply to any room or cubicle the subject of an exemption in force under clause (3).

(3) The Minister may, by order in writing, exempt any room or cubicle from the requirements of clause (1), either conditionally or unconditionally, if satisfied that the exemption will not result in any adverse effect on the health of persons sleeping therein.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to enable the Minister for Health to grant exemptions from the minimum floor space requirements imposed by Regulation 41 of the Public Health Regulations in relation to room and cubicles used for the purposes of sleeping accommodation. Such an exemption may only be granted if the Minister is satisfied that the exemption will not result in any adverse effect on the health of persons sleeping in the room or cubicle the subject of the exemption.
