2. Commencement
3. Exercise of Council's functions

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to make a transitional arrangement consequent on the proposed commencement of the provisions of the Radiation Control Act 1990 relating to the establishment of the Radiation Advisory Council. Pending the full commencement of the Radiation Control Act 1990, the Regulation enables the Radiation Advisory Council to exercise the functions of the Radiological Advisory Council under the provisions of the Radioactive Substances Act 1957.
