The object of this Regulation is to amend the Valuers Registration Regulation to reinstate a requirement that the period of training in valuing land required of an applicant for registration as a practising real estate valuer is 12 months full-time.

This requirement, which is of continuing operation, formed part of clause 5 of the Regulation which was repealed by an amendment to the Valuers Registration Act 1975 made by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No. 3) 1992.
