

1993—No. 131

COMPENSATION COURT ACT 1984—RULE

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 32 of 2 April 1993]

1. This Rule was made by the Rule Committee on 18th March, 1993.
2. The Compensation Court Rules 1990 are amended:
  - (a) by inserting the following rule after Part 24 rule 10:

Alteration to obligations

11. (1) A party who has requested the issue of a subpoena for production may, by written notice to the person named, alter the day specified in the subpoena to a day which is:

- (a) later than the day specified in the subpoena and the day, if any, as last altered pursuant to this subrule; and
- (b) a day on which the party might require the subpoena to be returnable under rule 6 (5).

(2) Where the person named has not produced documents to the Court in compliance with the subpoena, the party who requested the issue of the subpoena may, by written notice to the person named, excuse that person from compliance with the subpoena.

- (b) by inserting the following rule after Part 29 rule 16:

Taxation—costs of service outside New South Wales

16A. The fees allowed for service of process of the Court in another State or part of the Commonwealth shall be either:

- (a) in accordance with the scale of fees in force for the time being in the court of that State or part most analogous in jurisdiction to the Court; or

(b) if there is no such scale, in accordance with the scale of fees in force for the time being in the Court for service of process of the Court in this State.
