

1993—No. 233

EXHIBITED ANIMALS PROTECTION ACT 1986—REGULATION

(Relating to certain fees payable for animal display establishments in national parks)

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 65 of 25 June 1993]

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Exhibited Animals Protection Act 1986, has been pleased to make the Regulation set forth hereunder.

IAN ARMSTRONG
Minister for Agriculture and Rural Affairs.

The Exhibited Animals Protection Regulation 1989 is amended by inserting at the end of clause 14 (5) (b) the following word and paragraph:

; or

(b1) the applicant for an applicable authority is the Director of National Parks and Wildlife and the application is made in respect of an animal display establishment in a national park (within the meaning of the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974) for admission to which there is no charge other than the charge (if any) for admission to that national park,

EXPLANATORY NOTE

At present, the Exhibited Animals Protection Regulation 1989:

- (a) requires a local council or the trustee for a state recreation area to pay a specified fee when applying for a licence for an animal display establishment that is run by the council or the trustee and for admission to which there is no charge; and
- (b) permits the council or trustee to renew the licence without payment of a fee.

1993—No. 233

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Exhibited Animals Protection Regulation 1989 so as to subject the Director of National Parks and Wildlife to the same requirement and grant the Director the same permission in respect of national parks.

The Regulation is made under section 53 (1) (e) of the Exhibited Animals Protection Act 1986.
