EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to prescribe a period of 7 days as the time within which a claim relating to enrolment on the non-residential roll of electors for the City of Sydney or an objection relating to such an enrolment is to be considered and allowed or disallowed.

The Regulation has become necessary because, from 1 July 1993, the old provision governing the time limit (i.e. section 65 (6) of the Local Government Act 1919) is repealed. The Regulation does not, in fact, introduce any change in the time limit.

The Regulation relates to matters of a machinery nature only.
