

1993—No. 555

MINE SUBSIDENCE COMPENSATION ACT 1961—REGULATION

(Relating to fees for certificates under sections 15A, 15B and 15C of the Act)

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 124 of 12 November 1993]

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act 1961, has been pleased to make the Regulation set forth hereunder.

I. R. CAUSLEY, M.P.,
Minister for Agriculture and Fisheries, and Minister for Mines.

Commencement

1. This Regulation commences on 1 January 1994.

Amendments

2. The Mine Subsidence Compensation Regulation 1992 is amended:
 - (a) by omitting from clause 9 the matter “$8” and by inserting instead the matter “$13”;
 - (b) by omitting from clause 10 the matter “$22” and by inserting instead the matter “$37”;
 - (c) by omitting from clause 11 the matter “$10” and by inserting instead the matter “$17”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to increase the fees payable for certificates under sections 15A, 15B and 15C of the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act 1961 (“the Act”). The amounts of the increase are:

- (a) from $8 to $13, in the case of a certificate under section 15A of the Act, being a certificate that indicates whether or not a specified parcel of land is within a mine subsidence district and, if so, whether the Mine Subsidence Compensation Board approves the carrying out of specified development on that land; and
- (b) from $22 to $37, in the case of a certificate under section 15B of the Act, being a certificate that indicates whether or not an improvement has been erected in accordance with an approval granted under section 15A of the Act; and
- (c) from $10 to $17, in the case of a certificate under section 15C of the Act, being a certificate that indicates whether or not a claim for compensation under the Act has been made in relation to a specified parcel of land.

This Regulation is made under sections 15A (2), 15B (2) and 15C (2) of the Act.
