EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Proclamation commences most of the uncommenced provisions of the Registered Clubs (Amendment) Act 1993. Other provisions of this Act were commenced on 1 October 1993 or 1 January 1994. The provisions commenced by this Proclamation are amendments to the Registered Clubs Act 1976 relating to the following:

(a) modification of poker machines;

(b) notification of the consignment or movement of poker machines;

(c) the periodic fee for a gaming-related licence or a work permit and the periodic returns to be lodged by the holder of a gaming-related licence;

(d) the attachment of compliance plates to poker machines before they are moved from the premises of a licensed poker machine dealer;

(e) notification by the holder of a gaming-related licence of changes in the state of affairs of the licensee;

(f) display of identification while servicing, repairing or maintaining a poker machine in a registered club.

The only provisions of the Registered Clubs (Amendment) Act 1993 which remain uncommenced are proposed sections 82A-82C (to be inserted into the Registered Clubs Act 1976 by Schedule 1 (11)). These provisions relate to security and access to poker machines.
