EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Regulation increases fees under the Public Health Regulation 1991 for applications to the Director-General of the Department of Health:

- (a) for approvals to exhume the remains of the bodies of dead persons or still-born children (from $200 to $210); and
- (b) in respect of regulated systems designed to prevent or inhibit the growth in the systems of micro-organisms that are liable to cause Legionnaires' disease and other diseases, for approvals:
  - to provide warm-water systems for ablution purposes (from $100 to $105)
  - to supply operation manuals or maintenance manuals (from $100 to $105)
  - to clean water-cooling systems at intervals longer than 3 months (from $100 to $105)
  - to operate disinfection processes in warm-water systems or water-cooling systems (from $1,000 to $1,040).

This Regulation is made under the Public Health Act 1991, including section 82 (the general regulation-making power, in particular, section 82 (2) (s)).
