(Cll. 4 and 5)

Column 1 Offence	Column 2 Amount of penalty (penalty units)

EXPLANATORY NOTE

At present, the Impounding (Penalty Notice Offences) Regulation 1993 provides that the only offence which may be dealt with by penalty notice is the offence of abandoning a motor vehicle in a public place. The object of this Regulation is to add the offence of abandoning any other article in a public place to the offences which may be dealt with by penalty notice. The Regulation provides that the penalty which may be imposed for that offence if it is dealt with by penalty notice is 1 penalty unit (currently $100), which is less than the penalty prescribed for the offence of abandoning a motor vehicle if it is dealt with in that manner (currently $200).

The Regulation lists the offences which may be dealt with by penalty notice and the applicable penalties in Schedule format, to allow for the fact that different penalties apply according to the nature of the offence.

This Regulation is made under the Impounding Act 1993, in particular section 36 (Penalty notices) and section 51 (the general regulation making power).
