EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Proclamation is to commence provisions of the Irrigation Corporations Act 1994 that enable irrigation corporations to be established and to function. The provisions that actually establish irrigation corporations, and certain consequential amendments to various Acts, remain uncommenced.

Section 2 (2) of the Irrigation Corporations Act 1994 provides that a proclamation is not effective to commence a provision of section 6 (establishment of companies as State owned corporations) or 19 (amendment of State Owned Corporations Act 1989) unless it specifically mentions the provision. Consequently, sections 6 and 19 (other than section 19 (6)) are not commenced by this Proclamation.
